why we are different

At Seko UK we have a different way of thinking and a different way of approaching the business issues faced by our customers. Our leading-edge web-based supply chain software has been developed in-house, allowing it to be tailored to meet the requirements of each individual client. This enables us to deliver a unique service offering and a truly customised solution, which will improve processes, reduce workloads and increase margin opportunity. Our key to success is attention to detail and being 100% focussed on customer service.

We like to think of ourselves as a 'new economy' company. Literally translated, this says that we were formed after the PC and Internet revolution, which means that our business processes and attitudes have been created from day one with these technologies in mind - as opposed to inheriting business practices and technologies, as many of our competitors have had to do. All in all, our 'youth' enables us to think faster, act quicker and generally be more responsive to your needs.
